“Is the Party Over

“Happiness, I think, arrives with reflection.”

*or Is the Best Yet to Be?''

Dr. Cornelius Bushoven III delivered the 1985
Commencement Address.

*“St. Andrews only exists as we who work here, study
here, administer
here, together create it.”*

"...the first major task and challenge you will encounter upon graduation is to arrive at forty-one happy."

"You came into membership two, three, four years ago, and in the months your behaviors were part of what we call St. Andrews, many of you did not merely repeat what you found when you came, but you reshaped it."

"...if you are happy now, then probably the best is yet to come; be almost sure of that."

* "Is the Party Over or Is the Best Yet to Be" is the title of Dr. Neal Bushoven's Commencement Address to the Class of '85.

All quotes are taken from the Commencement Address.

Ganza '85

To The Class of 1985:

We hope that the faces, the names and the words collected herein will recall for you the good friends and good times you found at St. Andrews.

If your experience here was as meaningful to you as your contributions to the life of the College, then the Class of 1985 and St. Andrews were indeed well met.

St. Andrews will long remember your accomplishments, for they are the building blocks of tradition. And we ask that you, our newest alumni, keep vital your ties to your alma mater; for with the continuing interest of its sons and daughters, St. Andrews will flourish.
